Order Center

Click on “Order Center” to place your order through our website

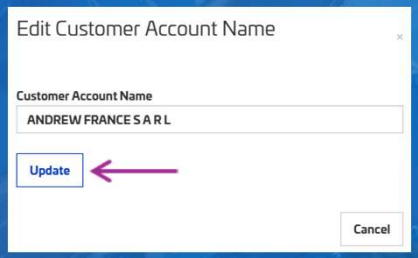

Customers

This section will display your customer number. Click on your name to proceed to the next step.

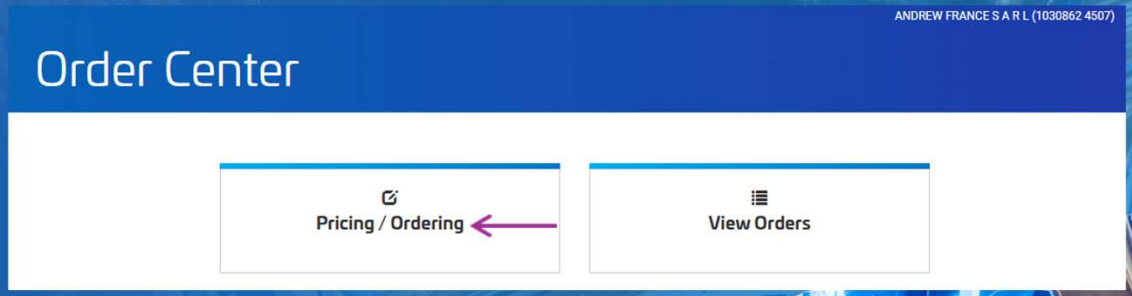

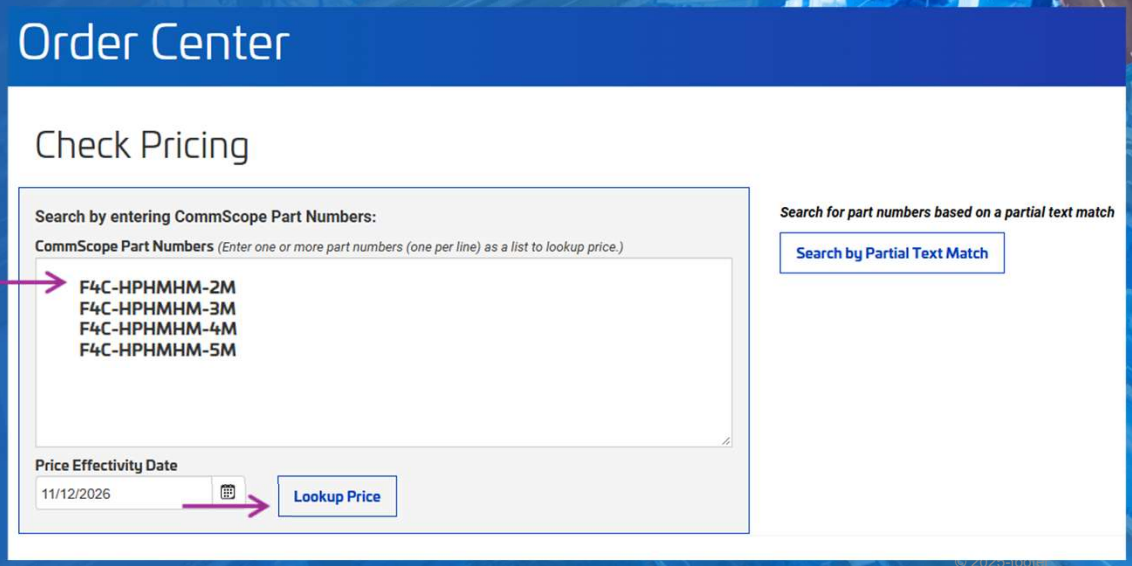

If you want to update your name, you can click this icon and click update.

Order Center

On this page, you can choose to place a new order or review previous orders. First, we'll focus on Pricing/Ordering.

1. Here you can list the materials you'd like to order. You can add one material or several at once; at this point, don't worry about the quantities, you'll have the chance to adjust them later.

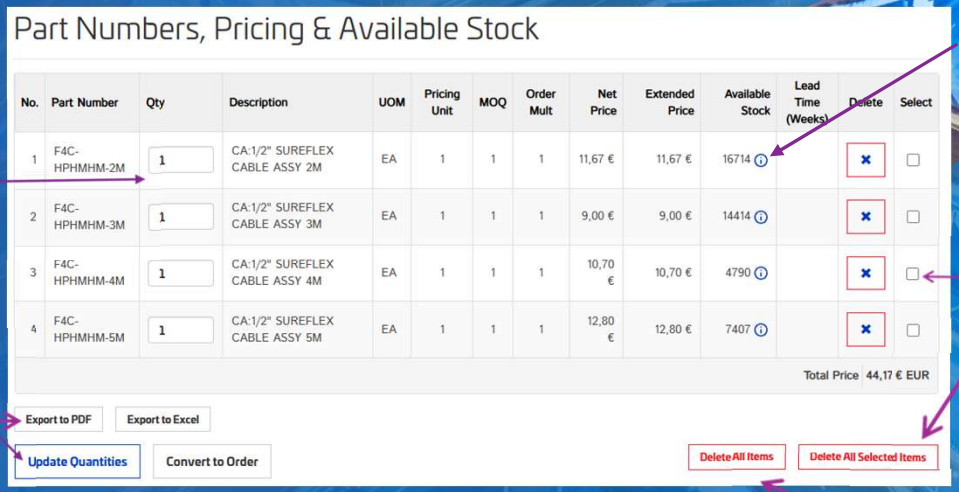

2. Click en Lookup Price, do not change the effective date.

Checking Pricing

The system will notify you that it has found the part numbers you specified earlier

Part Numbers, Pricing & Available Stock, By default, it will always assign a unit.

Here, you can modify the quantities as needed and click “Update Quantities.”

If you'd like, at this point, you can export to PDF or export to Excel.

In this section, you can check the stock of the item; please keep in mind that it is not 100% accurate. It is important to note that inventory is available on a first-come, first-served basis. Inventory is not guaranteed. We always recommend checking stock availability with the Customer Service Representative (CSR) team.

You can select the items in the checkboxes if you want to delete any of them, and then click “Delete All Selected Items.”

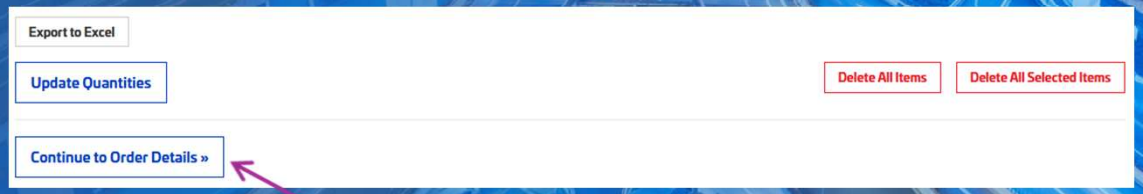

Click “Delete All Items” to clear the entire selection of materials.

After you've added the desired materials and updated the quantities, to proceed to the next step, click “Convert to Order,” but first be sure to consider the following points.

- Minimum Order Quantities (MOQ) and Order Multiples apply when ordering. Prices are subject to change.
- Quoted lead times are estimates and do not include time of transportation. Subject to change based on supply and demand. Could change daily.
- Inventory is on first come first served basis. Inventory is not guaranteed.
- For OWN/DAS customers. Please note that the pricing and stock might not be accurate. Please contact your Customer Experience Specialist.

After clicking Convert to Order It will take you to the same page where you can still modify your order if you wish or if you agree with the order, you can click the “Continue to Order Details” icon.
